THE GATHERING Sale Report

The 2013 Edition of "The Gathering at Shoal Creek" took place on March 30th at 12:30pm at the Shoal Creek Land and Cattle sale facility in Excelsior Springs, MO. Ed and Kathi Rule truly rolled out the red carpet for this year's event. As expected, the food and hospitality were second-to-none and Friday night's music entertainment was enjoyed by all. Shoal Creek Cattle Manager JR Richburg and herdsman Scott Akey battled through the adverse weather conditions leading up to the sale and had the cattle and facility in prime shape. They, along with all of the sale's guest breeders, assembled an outstanding set of cattle and genetic lots and they were all presented very well sale day. There was a huge crowd on hand and they made this year's event a great success.
